

Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools Ltd (MACS) schools operate with the consent of the Catholic Archbishop of Melbourne and are owned, operated and governed by Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools Ltd (MACS).

1. Purpose

This procedure outlines the strategies and actions in place to ensure that families, carers and other members of the school community are informed about relevant child safety and wellbeing matters and are involved in the promotion of child safety and wellbeing at the school.

2. Scope

These procedures apply in St Jude's

3. Principles

The following principles underpin our commitment to family engagement:

- Parents and Carers are given the opportunity to participate in decisions relating to child safety and wellbeing which affect their child
- Our school engages and openly communicates with Parents, Carers and other members of the school community about our child safe approach
- Relevant information relating to child safety and wellbeing about their child or children will be available to parents and carers
- Parents, Carers and other members of the school community can provide input into the development and review of the school's policies and practices relating to child safety and wellbeing
- Parents, Carers and other members of the school community have the right to be informed about the operations and governance of the school in relation to child safety and wellbeing.

4. School Commitment

Our school is committed to ensuring that all members of our school community are kept informed about relevant child safety and wellbeing matters and are involved in the promotion of child safety and wellbeing.

The Principal and school leaders at our school recognise their responsibilities to communicate and engage with families, carers and other members of the school community in relation to issues regarding child safety and wellbeing.

The Principal ensures the following actions and strategies are implemented to ensure we meet this commitment.

4.1. School leadership actions and strategies

1. clearly communicate how parents, carers and students can report concerns—verbally, online, anonymously or in writing
2. supporting staff, through appropriate professional learning, to strengthen their communication and engagement skills and to understand the value and importance of effective communication and engagement
3. opportunities for parents and carers to participate in learning activities that promote child safety, respectful relationships and digital safety

4. provide parent workshops on understanding child development, online safety, consent education, and resilience-building
5. provide regular updates on child safety policies and initiatives through newsletters and emails
6. seek family input when updating the Child Safety Code of Conduct, policies or reporting procedures
7. provide regular briefings at information sessions, parent–teacher interviews, community forums and through school council updates
8. incorporate Acknowledgement of Country and cultural protocols into school events, assemblies and decision-making processes
9. ensure Aboriginal families are engaged in planning for the wellbeing, identity and safety of their children.
10. collect feedback from families about the effectiveness of communication and engagement strategies

10.1. Actions and strategies for Staff

School Staff also have a responsibility to support MACS, the school's governing authority, and school leaders in communicating and engaging with Parents, Carers and other members of the school community regarding child safety and wellbeing.

Strategies and actions used to carry out this responsibility are listed below.

1. creating and maintaining open lines of communication with families, carers and other members of the school community, particularly with respect to child safety and wellbeing matters
2. liaising with parents and carers in relation to any concerns and/or decisions that affect their child and giving them the opportunity to contribute to any discussions, where appropriate
3. ensuring that parents, carers and others in the school community are updated and involved in child safety and wellbeing
4. ensuring they act in accordance with the principles set out in this Policy when managing issues relating to child safety and wellbeing
